

Kindertransport Fund

Eligibility Criteria

The Kindertransport Fund opened January 1, 2019. Although some survivors were provided a small payment in the 1950s, prior payments under compensation programs will not bar claimants from receiving this new benefit.

The fund will issue one-time payments of 2,500 Euros.

This fund is open to Jewish Nazi Victims who met the following criteria at the time of transport:

- they were under 21 years of age, unaccompanied by their parents and took part in a transport that was not organized by the German government in order to escape potentially threatening persecution by German forces;
- they were transported from somewhere within the German Reich or from territories that had been annexed or occupied at the time;
- the transport took place between November 9, 1938 and September 1, 1939 or was approved by the German authorities after November 9, 1938 but before September 1, 1939.

Only the participants of the Kindertransport themselves may apply for compensation. Their descendants or spouses are not eligible to file an application.
